

Ian Rowan

Norman, Oklahoma

(512) 350-6215

ian.j.rowan-1@ou.edu

LinkedIn

Education

University of Oklahoma – B.S. in Meteorology & Minor in Environmental Sustainability

August 2025–Present

- GPA: 4.0/4.0
- Relevant Coursework:

Intro to Programming for Meteorology

Calculus III

Principles of Sustainability

Atmospheric Circulations

Physics II

McNeil High School– Austin, TX

August 2021–May 2025

- GPA: 5.23/5.0
- AP Calculus AB, AP Physics I & II
- National Honor Society (NHS)

Attended monthly meetings; Volunteered at numerous events, including helping parents get their elementary school kids to class in the morning, assisting in a school's math-focused game night, donating supplies to teachers

- National Science Honor Society (SNHS)

Attended monthly meetings centered around the world of science and how it plays in to our daily lives

Relevant Skills

- Python
- Microsoft Office (Word, Powerpoint, Excel)

Volunteering

The Big Event

April 2026

Oklahoma City Food Bank

January 2026

Championship Hearts Foundation	February 2025
H-E-B Feast of Sharing	November 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025
Central Texas Food Bank Mobile Food Pantry	December 2022, 2024
Pond Springs Elementary Fall Festival	October 2023

Relevant Experience

June 2022 – July 2022

City of Austin Emerging Leaders Summer Internship – Summer Intern

As an intern for the City of Austin, I was placed at the Austin History Center (AHC) and given the opportunity to create a project of any topic I wanted. Using the resources of the history center, I conducted research on Austin's weather and climate history. I utilized NOAA databases, news articles, and historical archives to formulate a powerpoint presentation that compiled all of my findings. I sought help from University of Texas professor and meteorologist Troy Kimmel, receiving advice on effective presentation and future career paths in the field of meteorology. In the end, I had the privilege of presenting my final product to the AHC staff. This experience truly taught me independency; being able to call the shots without anyone telling me what to do.

Leadership

4D Men Chair	August 2026–Present
InterVarsity Black Campus Ministries: Prayer Subteam	June 2026–Present
Varsity Track and Field Team Captain	January 2024–April 2025

Awards

President's List	Fall 2025, Spring 2026
Distinguished Level of Achievement	Spring 2025